THE GENEALOGY OF THE DESCENDANTS OF JACQUES JUIEL AND LADY MARIE GERTRUDE MORAL

BACKGROUND

Jacques Jouiel named Bergerac, was born around 1640. Son of Etienne, master gunsmith, and of Suzanne Massau, from the city of Bergerac, in the Perigord, of the Dordogne, in France. Jacques is the common ancestor of all the Joyal and Joyelle families in Canada.

Jacques learned from a very young age the profession or the trade of his father. He arrived in Canada in 1656 at the age of 16 with the Missionary Priests or Fathers.

In Canada he went to the post at Trois-Rivieres, practicing his trade as gunsmith. This consisted of making fighting arms and other necessary utensils for the colonists. In 1658 he was at Ville-Marie, where he signed a contract for 65 pounds with M. Louis d'Ailleboust. In this contract on the 12th of Sept. 1658, he signed his name Jacques Jouiel dict Bergerat. A month later on the 16th of October he was in the city of Quebec, where he signed a contract with Antoine Boesme, in front of a Notary Public named Peuvret. In this document Antoine Boesme is named the master gunsmith, who took Jacques Jouiel into his service as an apprentice gunsmith, until St. John's Day the following year. In return for his work Jacques was given lodging, tools, food and more than a third of the profits of the company. In this contract with Antoine Boesme, there was a clause which shows what Jacques Jouiel was doing during his first few years in Canada (in addition to his work as a gunsmith). It is specified in this special clause that he will be free to leave _____ anytime and every time he is required to voyage into the wilderness or Indian country with the Reverend Father Lemoyne.

From his very arrival in Canada it seems he learned several Indian dialects from the Jesuit Priests. Beginning in 1659, he was engaged by Father Lemoyne as an interpreter in his Indian mission in the wild.

In June 1659 his contract with Antoine Boesme was terminated. Jacques Jouiel then worked at the iron works which were beginning to be set up at St. Maurice. His companions in iron, or fellow blacksmiths were: le nomme Barthelemy, Christophe Croteau, Urbain Beaudry, Jerome Langlois, Michel Moreau, Jean Badeau, Jacques Loiseau, Michel Rochereau, Jean Poisson, Louis Martin, Jean Bousquer, Jacques Menard, Pierre Potvin and Jean de Noyon.

Jacques Jouiel repaired and made arms for soldiers and hunters in his blacksmith shop. He also made any type of tool, iron utensil for the home (cooking utensils etc.). Before St. Maurice, he lived for a while in Batiscan. He was a gunsmith, arms maker, locksmith, blacksmith and tool maker. In 1666 he was living in Trois-Rivieres.

In 1671 with the western missionary's, the officers of the militia and about 20 Indian nations, Jacques attended the ceremonies taking possession of all the western territories in the name of the King of France, at Sault-Ste-Marie. At that time he was involved in the fur trade.

In 1676, at the age of 36, he married on the 10th of November at Trois-Rivieres. His bride, Marie Gertrude Moral, age 18, was the daughter of M. Quentin Moral, who was a lieutenant of the King, and a judge of the city of Trois-Rivieres. Quentin Moral's wife was named Marie Marguerie. (Quentin Moral, Lt. was born about 1614 in Origine Inconnue. He was Christened in 1622. He died on 9 May 1686 in Trois Rivieres, Quebec, Canada. He was buried on 9 May 1686 in Trois Rivieres, St. Maurice, Quebec, Canada. From Ancestral File (TM) data as of 2 January 1996.) (Marie Marguerie was born on 12 Sept. 1620 in Rouen, Normandy. She was Christened on 16 Sept. 1620 in St Vincent, Rouen, Normandy, France. She died on 6 Nov. 1700 in Trois Rivieres, St. Maurice, Quebec, Canada. She was buried on 26 Nov 1700 in Trois Rivieres, St. Maurice, Quebec, Canada.) Apparently the mother of the bride was against the marriage of Jacques and Marie, possibly due to her daughter's financial standing. However, on the second of Nov. 1676, the marriage contract was made public by a notary named Aneau. The husband brought 1500 pounds to the marriage and the bride brought 600 pounds which she had from a dowery from her father, and the title of Lady which she inherited from her mother, Marie Marguerie. The contract was witnessed by several relatives and friends such as: Louis Godefroy, Knight, Lord of Normanville. . . .The attorney of the King at Trois-Rivieres, Etienne de Tonnancourt. . . .Jacques de Labadie, Sergeant at the garison of Trois-Rivieres. . . .Joseph Petit, Lord of Brunault at Maskinonge and Jean Crevier, Lord of St. Francois. The ceremony was done in Latin.

There was no doubt that Jacques Jouiel had made a good deal of profit in the fur trade. The amount of his fortune in the marriage contract proves that he was a man of considerable means. Benjamin Sulte affirms that such a sum (1500pounds) at that time was considerable indeed.

On December 27, 1673 Jacques bought a tract of land measuring 2 acres by 50 acres on the St. Lawrence river in the Lordship of Tonnancourt. Bordered on the north by the property of Claude Jutras called Lavallee, and on the southwest by the property of his father-in-law, Quentin Moral. He then sold the land in 1676 to a man named Antoine Dubois. On the 18th of August 1677, Antoine Dubois gave back the land because he failed to pay for the land by the agreed upon time. That was St. Martin's Day of the same year.

On the 5th of September, 1680, Jacques Jouiel named Bergerac petitioned a gentleman named Joseph Petit called Bruno. Apparently this document or petition is unreadable. On the 17th of September 1680, Antoine Dubois (who saw) the land bequethed the land to Quentin Moral, (at his death), Jacques father-in-law, and in fact all of his belongings.

On the same day Jacques Jouiel named Bergerac rented a blacksmith bellows to Urbain Beaudry named Lamarche. On the 23rd of March 1681, Quentin Moral, attorney of his son-in-law Jacques Jouiel, named Bergerac, made a petition to Joseph Petet named Bruno concerning a payment of 144 pounds. On March 23, 1683, Jacques Jouiel, named Bergerac, leased for one year, to Pierre Forcier, "All the workable lands belonging to him in the Lordship St. Francois".

In 1685, in a deed registered at Trois-Rivieres, Jacques Jouiel sold a plot of land with 30 feet of frontage located below Platon, separated from here by a road leaving the road Notre Dame and going toward the river, the 3rd plot of land on the corner of the road named Notre Dame. In this deed it was said that Jacques Jouiel was living at St. Francois du Lac. In 1690 his daughter was baptised there. The daughter's name was Josephte. From this date on Jacques lived continually in the Parish of St. Francois du Lac.

On the 4th of July 1698, Jacques sets up his sons, named Jacques and Jean, on some land granted by a certain Lord Crevier in the village of St. Francois.

The fort and the church had been burned down in St. Francois in 1689. His children Joseph and Antoine born in 1694 and 1696 were baptised in Sorel, since there was no priest in residence in St. Francois.

Jacques Jouiel named Bergerac died at the age of 76 and was buried at St. Francois du Lac on the 26th of March 1716. There was an error made, saying he was 94 years of age at the time of his death. But this was an error. His widow, Marie Gertrude Moral du St. Quentin, baptised on the 22nd of March 1658, at Trois-Rivieres, died at the age of 78 and was buried in her turn at St. Francois du Lac August 28, 1736."

Alvin Joseph Joyal born December 1st, 1885 in Kingscroft, Stanstead, Quebec. Passed away October 22nd, 1959 in Meadow Lake, Saskatchewan. Buried in Meadow Lake, Saskatchewan at Woodlawn Cemetery.

General Notes:

Alvin was the son of Israel Joyal and Delphine Frappier. Alvin had four brothers, Alphonse, David, Moise, and Ernest (Alvin's twin). Alvin had one sister, Mary Anne , who died when she was one years old.

Alvin's father, Israel, passed away at the age of thirty -two and Alvin was about three months old. His mother remarried Pierre Carbonneau who was a widow with four children. When Delphine and Pierre married they had five daughters. So there were three families here and apparently they were all treated the same with lots of love, kindness and consideration.

We never knew much about Grandpa's family growing up because Grandpa came out west at a time when communication wasn't as it is today. Once Grandpa met and married Grandma they got busy with raising their family and making a new life of their own in the west.

I personally didn't know grandpa Joyal because he passed away when I was just a baby but I am going to include an old write up that my mother (his daughter in law) wrote for our last reunion ten years ago.

As told by Jean Joyal:

In 1909 Alvin went west to Rouleau, Saskatchewan. In 1911 he had a homestead in Hazenmore, Saskatchewan. It was there he met and married Mary Riley, who had recently moved there from Johnville, New Brunswick.

While at Hazenmore, Mr. Joyal became well known for his herd of Brown Swiss cattle (the first of their kind in Western Canada).

They went out to Haney, B.C. with their two boys, Ernest and Hughie around 1915.

Mr. Joyal used to take his cattle to all the fairs around there and he had won cups and many medals for them.

It was however the saddest years of their lives as it was there they lost their two sons. One died of pneumonia and the other one was run over by a car. (On his way to buy his mom a birthday present)

It devastated both of them and they moved back to Hazenmore to their friends.

Mr. Joyal farmed for awhile and then moved into town where he had a Car and Implement Business. In 1929-1930 the crops in the district were wiped out. Mr Joyal had financed a lot of people and they were unable to pay so he lost it all.

They traveled by wagon and four horses pulling a caboose that Mr. Joyal had made. They were three weeks on the road. When they were about forty miles from Meadow Lake, at Anderson's Shingle Mill, their horses ran away during the night. Alvin had to go by foot to look for them. When he located them, they had come out on the highway close to Glaslyn, which was about fifty miles from their camp.

After they arrived at Meadow Lake they lived in the caboose for a short time until Alvin bought a house and moved it onto the site near where the Legion is now.

At that time Alvin acquired a homestead in the St. Cyr district. He worked it for a year while still living in town.

He then decided to haul freight up north in the winter and south in the summer. In the winter he went as far as Ile A La Crosse with freight and picked up a load of fish and took it to Big River to Waite Fisheries and then back home to Meadow Lake.

He had to do this in the winter because he had to go across the lakes and rivers when they were frozen.

One spring when he was coming back, Alvin's four horses fell through the ice on Crooked River near Green Lake and they all drowned. He had two teams, one pulled and the others trailed behind.

The following year, Alvin bought a truck and for many years he did general trucking. He used to haul blueberries and vegetables down south in the fall of the year.

When the new hospital was built in Meadow Lake in 1936 they traded their house for the old hospital. Alvin fixed the old log hospital up for a home and they lived there for many years.

It was there that Mary took in boarders and maternity patients. The expectant mothers would come and stay at Joyal's until they had their babies and were well enough to go home. In those days, maternity patients stayed in bed for ten days after the baby was born. Mary not only assisted with the delivery (the Doctor used to come to the house) but she nursed the mother, looked after the baby's needs, as well as cooking for the new mother and caring for her own family's needs. She was known as an excellent cook and no one was turned away from her home hungry.

In Alvin's later years he did some farming for his sons. Then he worked for a few years as caretaker at the new hospital. He also did all the painting that was to be done there.

He had the biggest and best garden in town with not a weed in it.

He was also a carpenter. He built a home for his son Wilfred and when Wilfred moved out, Alvin built on it and lived there and it is now Jacky's home. He also built a cabin for Gerald up at Greig Lake.

He was just handy at any job and would help out any of his family at anytime. He had a quick temper but a soft heart.

Alvin passed away October 22nd, 1959.

A few years later Mary remarried Vint Tillotson. After Vint passed away Mary stayed in her home as long as she was able and then into the Villa. Towards the end when she needed more care she lived in the Meadow Lake nursing home. Mary passed away January 12th, 1987, (the same month and day that Alvin and Mary were married is the day and month she died).

Mary Emmaline Riley was born March 31st, 1895 in Johnville, New Brunswick. Daughter of Catherine (Kate) Colton and Bartholomew (Bart) Riley, Jr. Passed away January 12th, 1987 in Meadow Lake, Saskatchewan. Buried in Meadow Lake, Saskatchewan at Woodlawn Cemetery.

General Notes:

Mary Emmaline Riley left Johnville, New Brunswick with her sister Hannah when she was a young woman. We never knew any of Grandma's family and have just recently made a connection with them. I have included Grandma's parents family history later on following the Joyal history.

In Grandma's family history you will find that no one knew any of her children's names and they weren't even sure if her married name was Joyce or Joyal. Grandma's father was Bartholmew Riley Jr. and his parents were Bartholomew Riley Sr. and Elizabeth Lively. (I have included the Lively information as well as the Riley's and the Coltons) Grandma's mother was Catherine Colton, daughter of Hugh Colton and Annie McKoan/McKone.

Alvin Joseph Joyal and Mary Emmaline Riley - married January 12th, 1912 in Rouleau, Saskatchewan

Children from this marriage were:

49 M i. Ernest Joyal - believed to be born in 1912 - no birth dates available. Believed to be buried in Haney, B.C. at age 6 (One died of pneumonia and one boy was hit by a car - their deaths were believed to be one month apart)

General Notes: What people seem to remember most is his ability to remember where everything was and what had happened in the past. Someone would need a door fitting that hadn't been produced for decades. They would come to him, and he would quickly find the item if he had it. He loved the outdoors, and fished or hunted whenever possible. While he was in business, Sundays in the summer months found him on the lake if the weather permitted. It seemed the only way he could get away from the phone, and he could think about things such as up coming jobs and how to distribute his workforce that week He had a strong sense of fair play. It came out of the way he fished— never was a net used on trout, they had to be “gilled” using the fingers, and never gouging his clients. Because he always did good work for a fair price, he was often recommended by his clients. Considering he never went past the third grade, he was extremely successful in developing his business. He was more concerned about who a person was inside than in what possessions and financial income they had or what position they might hold He was a contractor.

Our family is made up of Sheila who lives in Moose Jaw, Saskatchewan, Tracy living in Vernon , B.C. and Brent at Tilley , Alberta.

Over the years the whole family was involved in raising Arabian Horses and as a result very involved in 4-H Light Horse Clubs and Horse Shows in general wherever we lived.

Fred retired from the Royal Bank on December 31, 1992 and Fred and I now live in Medicine Hat, Alberta at 415 Sprague Way S.E. T1B 3Y9 where we spend the summer months. During the winter we live in Yuma, Arizona at #133 - Sundance RV Park 13502 North Frontage Road 85367.

My last memories of Grandma Joyal are the visits we had at Meadow Lake as our children were growing up. Grandma was always making something to eat for us and was afraid she would not have enough. We always went away from her place stuffed.

My Most vivid memories of Grandpa Joyal are during the time after I was burned severely. Grandpa used to sit out on the porch with me and rub my arm for an hour with bear grease from a beer bottle. The smell was terrible but it sure did help the burn heal.

Aunt Ethel and Uncle Maurice are my Godparents. My special memory of both of them was on my 12th birthday. They gave me a beautiful black onyx ring which I have cherished and still have to this day.

General Notes:

Sheila Beirnes & Grant Barnett

We currently reside in Moose Jaw, SK. where Grant manages Heartland Live-stock & I am a chef, housekeeper, carpenter, Irish washer woman, etc. (Stay-at-home MOM). I was born in Saskatoon, SK. Married...what's that? We have 4 children. Dean who currently works in Medicine Hat at a Golf course and is staying with my Mom & Dad (Gerri (Joyal) & Fred Beirnes) until the Golf season is over. Rebecca, 4, who is already trying to run the house. Her nickname is "Lil' Gerri" after her Gramma Gerri and is very proud to be named "Rebecca Amy" after "that other Gramma". Taylor, 3, is pretty easy going but really tough. She is the enforcer in our family. Everyone listens to her, even our huge dog. Then there's Shay, 1, born April 26, 2002. He tries to keep up with the other 2 kids but he's never going to talk because he just points and screams and they give him what he wants.

This is where I fit in:

      Wilfred
    & Amy Joyal
   Gerri & Fred Beirnes
Donnie Kirk
   Sheila Beirnes & Tracy Brent

P.S. Just for fun, check out the girls' (Rebecca & Taylor's ) birthdays...yep, that's right, from Jan. 6 to Mar.6 they are the same age!
